"And It Came To Pass"

A lady told her preacher that her favorite scripture was, "And it came to pass."

The minister looked puzzled, so she explained.

She said my arthritis hurts me often, and I'm lonely because so many of my friends have crossed over into heaven. So I would hate to think that the bad things that happen to us are permanent. Most things in this life are designed to "pass."

For instance, this wonderful world is destined to pass. One day this old world will be rolled up like a scroll (Revelation 6:14) and be burned (II Peter 3:10).

These bodies God has given us are "fearfully and wonderfully made" (Psalm 139:14), but they are the "outward man" which wastes away (I Cor. 4:16) with time.

Now, obviously, this is not what the inspired writers meant when they said "it came to pass." Their observation was that God's predictions and providence always come true.

Just the same, it's comforting to know that most things we know on this earth will one day "pass."
