"Purposeless?"

Do you hate to see forest fires burning down acres and acres of beautiful timber? Have you watched wildfires turn beautiful trees into heaps of ashes?

We complain because some of those fires are accidentally set by careless campers or deliberate arsonists. We feel strongly about the tragic waste of lovely forests.

On the other hand, some of those fires are caused by nature. A lightning strike can set ablaze trees which have stood like sentinels for a hundred years or more.

We used to fight every one of the fires, but now some are allowed to be a controlled burn. We have to ask why? Isn't that destruction without a purpose?

Well, go with me off the beaten path to a spot high on rugged mountain slopes which are thick with Lodgepole Pines. They are tough trees, but their seeds which allow them to spread are so thickly covered that only extreme heat can release the seeds to be planted.

Suddenly we see a purpose for fires. Without the fires the Lodgepole Pines would not be able to plant new trees. Now the U.S. Forest Service no longer fights these fires furiously. Instead they now have adopted a policy of "managed fires."

In a flash of insight, we can suddenly see why the apostle Peter said, "Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you..." (I Peter 4:12).

All of us complain about what we think of as "bad things" coming upon us, when in reality those bad things may indeed have an extremely good purpose behind them.

In your life experiences, look always for the purposes of God which may be hidden there!
