Dear Brethren,

We want to thank you for the love and support you have given us, including weekly cards from "Strengthening the Family".

Unfortunately because of finances, we have had to make other arrangements. We are planning to move to Vancouver, WA to be with our son the middle of February.

We're leaving behind our dear families, Eary and Martin families. Its' very hard to give up such a strong support system.

With all our hearts, we wish God's blessings and guidance in the coming years for you, our dear spiritual family.

Keep the Faith

"Our Sunday Assembly"

What follows is an excerpt from chapter 67 Justin Martyr's First Apology--that is a defense of the Christian faith. It is a description of a Christian worship service in the second century after Jesus (c. A.D. 150).

"And on the day called Sunday, all who live in cities or in the country gather together to one place, and the memoirs of the apostles or the writings of the prophets are read, as long as time permits; then, when the reader has ceased, the president verbally instructs, and exhorts to the imitation of these good things. Then we all rise together and pray, and, as we before said, when our prayer is ended, bread and wine and water are brought (i.e. the elements of the Lord's Supper, MH), and the president in like manner offers prayers and thanksgivings, according to his ability, and the people assent, saying Amen; and there is a distribution to each, and a participation of that over which thanks have been given, and to those who are absent a portion is sent by the deacons. And they who are well to do, and willing, give what each thinks fit; and what is collected is deposited with the president, who succours the orphans and widows, and those who, through sickness or any other cause, are in want, and those who are in bonds, and the strangers sojourning among us, and in a word takes care of all who are in need. But Sunday is the day on which we all hold our common assembly, because it is the first day on which God, having wrought a change in the darkness and matter, made the world; and Jesus Christ our Saviour on the same day rose from the dead. For He was crucified on the day before that of Saturn (Saturday); and on the day after that of Saturn, which is the day of the Sun (Sunday), having appeared to His apostles and disciples, He taught them these things, which we have submitted to you also for your consideration." (Ante-Nicene Fathers, Vol. 1, edited by Alexander Roberts and James Donaldson, pp. 185-186)
