TORNADO DISASTER RELIEF EFFORTS

We continue our thanks for all the volunteers that have been working this past week - from Meadow View, Mesquite, Valley Creek, Saturn Road, Eastridge, Wylie, and many others from out-of-town and out-of-state. Much work has been done but there is still much to do. We need many volunteers again this week.

How Can You Help....

- Starting last week, Meadow View is providing lunches, Monday-Saturday, for all the volunteers working in the community. This includes the Disaster Response Team (DRT) as well as local volunteers. We have a need for volunteers to help each day to prepare the lunches. We will be preparing them here in the Meadow View kitchen from 10:00 AM to 11:30 AM each day. If you can help with this effort on some/all of these days, please contact JoAnn Bowles.
- Sign up on the signup sheet at the information desk in the foyer and / or...
- Show up in the Meadow View kitchen area at 8:00 AM each/any morning (Monday-Saturday) to join one of the DRT teams for the day.

Let's have another impactful week for Christ.

THE BABY BLANKET MINISTRY THANKS YOU FOR YOUR HELP!

We would like to thank everyone who has contributed to, encouraged and supported the Baby Blanket Ministry. You are all a part of blessing the many families and hospital staff over the years the Blanket Ministry has been in existence. Please know that God has been glorified through your generosity, participation and encouragement. Continued prayers as well as donations and participation (many hands serving the Lord lighten the load) are always appreciated. If you have any questions or would like to participate in any way please contact Sherry Grice.

"We Will Not All Sleep"

Last Tuesday I did a funeral for a woman who was a member of the congregation that I used to preach for in Bossier City, Louisiana. This sister was one month shy of 104 when she passed from this life. There were 53,364 people in America who were 100 years old or older in 2010. In light of the fact that the population of the United States was 308,110,000 in 2010, that means that less than two-one-hundredths of one percent of Americans will reach 100 years of age.

Though there is a very low statistical chance that any one of us will make it to 100 years of age, there is a very high chance that we will die. Ethan asked, "Who can live and not see death, or who can escape the power of the grave?" (Psa. 89:48 NIV). According to the statistics there is a 100 percent chance that you and I will die, for every American who has ever lived has died, even if they made it to 104 or beyond.

However, there is an inherent weakness in statistics. They calculate general probabilities based upon past realities. Statistics are not divine prophecies that infallibly foretell the future. While there is a good statistical chance that we will all die, if we are allowed to live long enough, we won't die. Paul said so by inspiration. He wrote, "Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed" (1 Cor. 15:51 NIV). Paul is not quoting the babies in a church nursery, but he is speaking of what will happen when Jesus comes again. "Sleep" is used in this passage as a metaphor for death (cf. Dan. 12:2; Acts 7:60). Christians who are alive at the second coming of Jesus won't have to die physically. Jesus will destroy death at his coming (1 Cor. 15:25-26; Rev. 20:4), and he will change mortal bodies of living Christians into immortal ones (1 Cor. 15:53-54).

While it is important to live recognizing one's mortality, it is even more important to live recognizing the immanency of Jesus' coming. Notice that in Paul's statement he wrote, "WE will not all sleep, but WE will all be changed" (emphasis mine). Paul lived as though Jesus' coming would precede his death. He closed 1 Corinthians by saying, "Come, Lord!" (16:24 NIV).
