TORNADO DISASTER RELIEF EFFORTS

The Elders and DRT want to thank all the many workers for their assistance and hard work during the many weeks of tornado recovery efforts. From packing lunches for the volunteers, words of encouragement, to tearing down houses and hauling off debris and all in-between. It could not have been accomplished without all the volunteers from Meadow View, Mesquite, Valley Creek, Saturn Road, Eastridge, Wylie, Buckingham Rd. and many, many others from out-of-town, out-of-state and even as far away as Canada. God has been glorified by the love and efforts of the many who put their lives on hold to reach out and help those hurting.

Many people have been assisted and will continue to be blessed through the long-term recovery process.

At this time, as work requests have slowed down, daily assistance has been placed on hold. As requests come in, we may need additional workers on an occasional basis. Thank you all.

THE BABY BLANKET MINISTRY

THANKS YOU FOR YOUR HELP!

We would like to thank everyone who has contributed to, encouraged and supported the Baby Blanket Ministry. You are all a part of blessing the many families and hospital staff over the years the Blanket Ministry has been in existence.

Please know that God has been glorified through your generosity, participation and encouragement. Continued prayers as well as donations and participation (many hands serving the Lord lighten the load) are always appreciated. If you have any questions or would like to participate in any way please contact Sherry Grice.

"Accidents and Curses"

An unbelievable thing happened last Sunday at a basketball tournament in Wisconsin. Two teams of eighth-grade girls were playing. A fourteen-year-old girl ran under the basket and fell. She told the referee that she could not get up. When people tried to help the girl up they discovered that she had been impaled on a giant splinter from the gym's wooden floorboards. That splinter was three or four inches long and had pierced her abdomen. Rescuers had to remove a part of the floorboard so that she could be transported to the hospital where the splinter was removed. All of her vital organs were missed and she was released from the hospital on Monday.

This girl's impalement on a splinter was a tragic accident. However, in Israel there were times when rebellious people were intentionally hung on trees. Moses instructed concerning these cases, "If someone guilty of a capital offense is put to death and their body is exposed on a pole ("tree" ESV), you must not leave the body hanging on the pole overnight. Be sure to bury it the same day, because anyone who is hung on a pole is under God's curse. You must not desecrate the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance" (Deut. 21:22-23 NIV).

The King of Ai was hung on a pole according to this regulation in Joshua 8:28-29. But the most well-known example of this regulation was in the case of Jesus (John 19:31-37). Paul quoted the above passage from Deuteronomy in his letter to the Galatian churches. He wrote, "Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us, for it is written: 'Cursed is everyone who is hung on a pole ("tree" ESV)" (3:13).

Though the Wisconsin eighth grade girl was accidentally impaled, Jesus' crucifixion was no accident. His sinless life had merited for him God's blessing. Our sin had merited for us God's curse. Jesus took the pole that we all deserved, being subject to God's curse, so that he could redeem us from that curse. Jesus was cursed so that we might be blessed.

-- Mike
