Strengthening Family

Strengthening Family is a ministry of encouragement.

Strengthening Family needs your help. This is a ministry that provides an opportunity to encourage and recognize members of the church family. Those who choose to be involved receive a double blessing as it offers involvement in a non threatening way and provides fellowship with concerned individuals. Not a lot of time is required. Please consider joining us at 5:30pm each Monday evening. Talk to Billy Pope with any questions.

Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers.

Galatians 6:9-10

Something to Chew On

I was eating a piece of ham some time back. When I bit down, my tooth caught the fork and not the ham. A corner of my tooth was broken off. Breaking a tooth is upsetting. This caused me to think about what the Bible says about teeth.

It describes Solomon as being attracted to his bride's beautiful smile. He said, "Your teeth are like a flock of sheep, just shorn, coming up from the washing. Each has its twin; not one of them is alone" (Song of Sol. 4:2 NIV; cf. 6:6).

It teaches that teeth are valuable, and that the loss of teeth is hurtful. Broken teeth as a result of an assault were to be punished--"eye for eye, tooth for tooth" (Exod. 21:24 NIV). Further, "an owner who knocks out the tooth of a male or female slave must let the slave go free to compensate for the tooth" (v. 27 NIV). Before the invention of dentures, loosing teeth was a part of what caused the elderly to say of their days, "I find no pleasure in them" (Eccl. 12:1 NIV).

Solomon described this tooth loss: "when the grinders cease because they are few" (v. 3 NIV). The hurt of losing teeth was used in similes; "Like a broken tooth or a lame foot is reliance on the unfaithful in a time of trouble" (Prov. 25:19 NIV).

It speaks of teeth figuratively. When one slanders another, their teeth are described as weapons: "...men whose teeth are spears and arrows, whose tongues are sharp swords" (Psa. 57:4b NIV; cf. Prov. 30:14). David prayed for God's judgment on his slanderers in these terms: "Break the teeth in their mouths, O God" (Psa. 58:6 NIV). Job described his critical condition as follows: "I escaped only by the skin of my teeth" (Job 19:20 NIV). When God brought famine upon Israel in judgment, he said, "I gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities" (Amos 4:6 ESV). That doesn't mean that God distributed toothbrushes to them, but that God cut off their food supply. The Jews who were carried into Babylonian captivity complained that they were being punished for their parents' sins with this proverb, "The parents eat sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge" (Ezek. 18:2 NIV; cf.
Jer. 31:29-20). Solomon also used the imagery of that which is sour on the teeth, "As vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes, so are sluggards to those who send them" (Prov. 10:26 NIV).

The saddest context in which the Bible speaks of teeth is its description of hell. Jesus said of the wicked, "They will throw them into the blazing furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth" (Matt. 13:42 NIV; cf. 8:12; et al.).
