DON'T TAILGATE!

One of the most frustrating aspects of driving in the heavy traffic of the Metroplex is the phenomenon of phantom traffic jams. You've experienced it. Traffic is heavy, but flowing smoothly. Then suddenly it comes to a complete standstill. After sitting for a few minutes and then beginning to creep, it resumes flowing normally. When you get to the spot where traffic slow initially stopped, there is no wreck or observable cause for the prior congestion. What was the cause for the traffic jam? Answer: Tailgating.

A 2017 study conducted by the Computer Science and Artificial Intelligence Laboratory at MIT revealed that if every car would keep an equal distance between itself and both the car in front of it and the car behind it, then traffic would flow twice as fast. However, when people get as close as they can to the car in front of them, traffic slows down or comes to a screeching halt. And not only that, tailgating results in more accidents which in turn slow traffic.

This principle is also true in one's spiritual life. God places those he saves in the church because he wants them to live in community and not isolation. There are a lot of benefits that we get from our spiritual brothers and sisters, not the least of which being their example. Paul commanded Timothy to "set an example for the believers" (1 Tim. 4:12 NIV). However, since even the most mature Christians sin from time to time (James 3:2), if we're following too closely behind our spiritual mentor, we're likely to be led into sin by their example. Paul was worried that Peter's sin would influence other believers in Antioch (Gal. 2:11-14). "If the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit" (Matt. 15:14 NIV).

There is so much wisdom in Paul's admonition in 1 Corinthians 11:1; "Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ." When we're following the example of a more mature believer, we need not tailgate them, but keep enough distance between us and them so that from time to time we can look around them to Jesus to make sure that they are leading us according to his example.
