WELCOME GUESTS!

Whenever the rainbow appears in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and all living creatures of every kind on the earth.

So God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant I have established between me and all life on the earth."

Genesis 9:16-17

Thank you to all who helped make our VBS Great!!

A Big thanks to all who donated to the Kleenex Boxes for Foster's Home. Our goal was to collect 120 boxes, and you all made it happen with a final count of 132 boxes!

Tender Loving Care (TLC)

It has been a while since we have updated our program. The purpose of this program is to check on a special group of the "Prime Timers."

Meadow View needs workers in this program. If you are willing to check on the welfare of this special group, please see Charles Bowles. There is a sign-up sheet on the table in the foyer.

We will meet soon, to discuss the program, answer questions, and try to put you at ease on what is expected of you.

Workers Needed

Ladies Ministry - ICU Care Bags

We are in need of handwritten cards for ICU care bags that will be distributed on a monthly basis. The care bags will be provided to families in the ICU waiting room at Dallas Regional here in Mesquite. Our hope is that this care bag will bless someone in a special way during their difficult moments. Please pick up your note cards and return the completed ones to the basket on the Ladies Ministry table in the foyer.

For any questions please see Ann Healy

THE BABY BLANKET MINISTRY THANKS YOU FOR YOUR HELP!

If you have any questions or would like to participate in any way please contact Linda Wright.

Yarn Donations for the Cancer Center at Baylor "Passing the Hat"

This organization makes caps for cancer patients. If you have yarn to donate, contact Joy Holmes.

Lions

Most lions living in the wild today live on the African continent. There is only one pocket of lions currently living in Asia. However, in biblical days there were many lions roaming about Palestine.

Lions were especially to be found in the northern mountains and the Jordan River Valley. For Solomon said, "Descend from the crest of Amana, from the top of Senir, the summit of Hermon, from the lions' dens" (Song 4:8 NIV); and Jeremiah wrote, "Like a lion coming up from Jordan's thickets to a rich pastureland, I will chase Babylon from its land in an instant" (Jer. 50:44 NIV). Lions were prevalent enough that the lazy used them as an excuse to not go to work; 'The sluggard says, "There's a lion outside! I'll be killed in the public square!"' (Prov. 22:13 NIV).

God sometimes used lions as a means to bring judgment on sinners. For instance, relative to the pagans brought in by Assyria to take the Israelites' place in Samaria it is said, "When they first lived there, they did not worship the LORD; so he sent lions among them and they killed some of the people" (2 Ki. 17:25 NIV; cf. 1 Ki. 13:24; 20:36).

Three Israelites are said to have killed lions. When Samson flirted with breaking his Nazarite vow by walking near a vineyard, he killed a lion that ambushed him with his bare hands (Jud. 14:5-6). As a shepherd boy, David killed the lion that threatened his sheep (1 Sam. 17:36; cf. Am. 3:12). Because lions are a threat to people, David's brave warrior, Benaiah, killed a lion that had been trapped in a pit (1 Chron. 11:22).

The safety and security of our eternal state is described by the prophet Isaiah in terms of the conversion of carnivorous predators into herbivores. It is written, "The wolf and the lamb will feed together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox, and dust will be the serpent's food. They will neither harm nor destroy on all my holy mountain" (Isa. 65:25 NIV). In contrast to this Paradise, Isaiah describes hell for those "who rebelled against [God]" as a place where "the worms that eat them will not die, the fire that burns them will not be quenched" (66:24 NIV; cf. Mark 9:48).
